Course Description

Beginning Music Theory introduces fundamentals of organized sound, emphasizing rules of Western music composition and offering opportunities to create original works. Students will develop the ability to describe, understand, and recognize aspects of tonal music, and skills in sight-singing, dictation/aural, written aspects, composition, and analytical areas. Students will be exposed to a variety of exercises designed to develop these skills including listening, performance, writing, creating, and analyzing music. While the main emphasis is placed on music of the Common Practice Period (1600-1750), music of other stylistic periods may also be studied. Explores use of technology for composition.

Materials Needed:

Notebook (3-ring style binder) or Spiral Bound, Pencil, Staff Paper, Notational software (e.g. Finale Notepad), Notebook paper.

Textbook:

Kostka, Stefan/Payne, Dorothy, Tonal Harmony, with an Introduction to Twentieth-Century Music 5th Edition.

Class Procedures:

1. No chewing gum, eating, or drinking will be permitted in the band room areas (other than water in a sealed container).
2. Do not throw paper/trash on the floor. Use the trash cans provided. When leaving class, please rearrange your chairs and leave the room neat and orderly.
3. Leave all percussion and other musical instruments/equipment alone (this includes the piano, audio unit, computer, Promethean, etc.) unless given permission to use by instructor.
4. No "rough play" in the band room areas.
5. All students are expected to be in the band room when the tardy bell rings. I follow school tardy procedures. Please refer to the Student Handbook regarding tardies.
6. Have all necessary supplies with you at all times. This includes a 3-ring binder/spiral notebook with paper, pencil/pen, etc....
7. Treat classroom supplies (i.e. music stands, supplies) with respect and care.
8. When in doubt, treat everyone (including the instructor), as you would wish to be treated; be courteous, respectful and mature.
9. You MAY NOT take pictures of my slides. You must copy the notes onto your own papers. THIS HELPS YOU LEARN THE MATERIAL.

10. THE USE OF A CELL PHONE ON ANY TEST (if I see it on you, it's being used) WILL RESULT IN A ZERO GRADE AND A REFERRAL FOR CHEATING.

Attendance/Tardy Policy:

Attendance is mandatory and students are expected to be accountable for all absences. Students will be allowed 24 hours after the absence(s) to make-up their assignment/participation grade if they so desire.

Remember: Passing or failing will not be my choice but yours!
Choose to be successful in your daily life through a great attitude and a great outlook on life!!!
