Private Lesson Registration

Why should I invest in private lessons for my child?

At Cherokee Bluff, the band program can benefit greatly from the utilization of the fine instructors who teach in the metro-Atlanta area. All band students are encouraged to study privately if possible. Lessons are for the advanced student who wishes to be challenged and also for the struggling student who wants to catch up. Past experiences show that these students achieve a greater level of musicianship, and in most cases, are accepted to more honor organizations, such as District Honor Band, All-State Band, or a future MUSIC SCHOLARSHIP, as a result of learning from a “specialist” on their instrument.

We want to make private lessons as affordable and convenient as possible for students and parents. Lessons will be held after school on Tuesdays in the CBMS/CBHS Band Room so students can stay after school for their lessons instead of having to travel to a music store. This saves parents time and gas money. This is a huge advantage that most schools in our area do not offer.

Lessons occur every week for 30 minutes each and the cost will be $30 per lesson. We have checked pricing with several local music stores and some other schools in the North Georgia area and we are excited to offer a very low cost for this level of instruction. Payment should be made directly from the parent to the private teacher at the first lesson of each month for all lessons that will occur that month.

To register for private lessons, please fill out this form and return it to your child’s band director as soon as possible so we can begin filling spots. We already have teachers for certain instruments lined up and ready to go. The band director will notify parents once lessons are ready to begin. We hope that you are excited about this amazing opportunity for our band students.

Ever onward and upward,
